ABOUT ESC CLERMONT

The ESC Clermont School of Management was established more than 100 years ago in 1919.

Since then, over 15.000 graduates have contributed their talents and skills to business communities all over the World, from the Auvergne Rhône-Alpes region in central France where the Business School is located, to Paris, London, New York, Dubai, Singapore, Beijing, and almost everywhere in between.

What started out as a small school in Clermont-Ferrand (home to Michelin Tire Company's World headquarters), has now grown to be internationally accredited by AACSB. The school obtained the AMBA accreditation in 2020.

ESC Clermont Business School is ranked amongst the best 5% business schools with AACSB-accredited, which is recognized for Top Business Schools around the globe. It is one of the oldest business schools in France.

ESC Clermont Business School was also accredited by Financial Times, QS World University Rankings and French Ministry of Higher Education and Research.

ESC Clermont is ranked among the Top 100 Business Schools by Financial Times.

The ESC Clermont School of Management is also part of 'Conférence de Grandes Ecoles' (Great Schools), the association comprising highly selective and prestigious institutions that are recognized by the state.
