is the moment
I fail.

About
NICK VUJICIC

International motivational speaker and New York Times best-selling author Nick Vujicic (pronounced "Vooycheech") was born in 1982 in Melbourne, Australia. Without any medical explanation or warning, Nick came into the world with neither arms nor legs. Throughout his childhood, Nick dealt not only with the typical challenges of school and adolescence, such as bullying and self-esteem issues, he also struggled with depression and loneliness as he questioned why he was different from all the other kids. He couldn't get the haunting question of "Why was I the one born without arms and legs?" out of his head.

As Nick grew up, he learned to deal with his disability and gradually accomplished more on his own. A janitor at his high school inspired him to start speaking publicly about overcoming adversity, so Nick starting speaking to small groups of students when he was 17.

Nick is an internationally renowned motivational speaker and New York Times bestselling author. He has traveled to more than 60 countries and delivered motivational speeches for more than 400 million people. His videos and audio files have changed the life of more than billion people.

Born with no arms and no legs, Nick Vujicic not only plays football and swims, he is also an accomplished author, driver, and sky-diving coach.

Nick has written major bestselling books: "Unstoppable", Life without Limbs, and Stand Strong. Nick received the title of National Hero from Australia in 2005. He graduated from university with a Bachelor of Commerce Degree and double major in accountancy and financial planning. He is the president of one of the largest charity organizations in the United States.

As a speaker, Nick truly inspires every type of audience, giving them the motivation to overcome adversity by positive thinking. From 100 to 500 thousand take part in his inspirational speaking events and gives them hope and needed inspiration and hope to achieve their goals.

I have the choice to be angry for not having limbs, but decided to be thankful for higher purpose in life and for what I have.

God has created me without arms and legs, but has given the power to achieve my dreams and goals. God has provided you high dreams and greater goals. Believe and trust yourself and stand strong while you move toward your dreams and achieving excellence.
